

REEL WORK 2007 ~ May Day Labor Film Festival

Related Events

Saturday, April 21

Cabrillo College Aptos Campus • 9 am–4 pm

Imagining Change/Shaping The Future

The Social Justice Conference is a multi-media event celebrating the movement working toward a more just, humane, and equitable society.

Contact: CCSJConf@cabrillo.edu or (831) 477-3254.

Wednesday, April 25

SJCC Student Center Community Room • 6:30 pm

San Jose City College, 2100 Moorpark Avenue, San Jose

The Ballad of Joe Hill

(Director: Bo Widerberg, 1971, 115 min)

Dramatic portrayal of the life of the famous IWW organizer, poet and songwriter who, according to folk tradition, never died.

Sponsor: SJCC Labor Studies Program Contact: 408-674-5020

Saturday, April 28 • Worker's Memorial Day

CWA Local 9423, 2015 Naglee Avenue, San Jose • 9 am–4 pm

Bay Area Troublemakers Institute

Union and non-union workers young and old will join with other activists for a day of sessions aimed at strengthening the labor movement one worker at a time.

Sponsor: Labor Notes Magazine

Registration: www.labornotes.org/events/bayareaschool

Contact: louierochoa@cwa9423.com or 408-278-9441

6 pm • Morristown: In the Air and Sun

(Filmmaker: Anne Lewis, 2007, 60 min))

East Tennessee, destination for immigrant workers who finally win one.

Monday, April 30

SJCC Fine Arts Room 5 • 7 pm

San Jose City College, 2100 Moorpark Avenue, San Jose

Working Uninsured

(Producer: KQED, 2005, 33 min)

How California workers are dealing with the health care crisis.

Speaker: Jon Fromer, filmmaker, TV producer, musician

Sponsor: SJCC Labor Studies Program Contact: 408-674-5020

Friday, May 4

Hyatt Regency Monterey • 6 pm

May Day Labor Awards Dinner

Annual gathering of the regional labor movement and allies.

Speaker: Jackie Guerra, author, comedienne, host of Workin' It! radio.

Sponsor: Monterey Bay Central Labor Council

Admission: $125/low income worker assistance available

Contact: mbclc.org or 831-633-1859